CBSA, Landran adjudged Best B-School in Punjab

Proving its mettle in imparting professional Business Management education in the region, Chandigarh Business School of administration, Landran has added another feather to its cap by being adjudged the Best B-School in Punjab as per the latest rankings released by Punjab Technical University, Jalandhar. CBSA Landran won this accolade by finishing at the top of rankings amongst the 128 B-Schools under PTU in the state of Punjab. A premier magazine in the area of business studies, Business & Management Chronicle in its Jan2013 edition has also ranked CBSA at No.1 position among the Business Schools of North India and has also given CBSA A++rating. Other prominent Institutes bagging top positions are IMI, New Delhi, ITS, Ghaziabad, VIMR, New Delhi etc.

The magazine has chosen only those institutes which are capable of providing international standards to their students and faculty. This ranking came out on the basis of three stage survey conducted by this magazine with help of team of experts. The main emphasis in this survey was on the aspects like diversity and quality of students, industrial and teaching experience of faculty members, institutions efforts in developing infrastructure facilities like library, recreational rooms, canteen, entertainment, hostels, faculty accommodation and wellness etc.
